- 28.07 No grievance instituted by the Board of Trustees as agent to the Parties pursuant to this Article shall be defeated on the basis of any technical or procedural objection as to arbitrability, including any objection based on provisions pertaining to timeliness.
- 28.08 Notwithstanding the availability of grievance and arbitration procedures, it is further agreed between the Parties that the existence of this provision does not constitute a waiver of the rights of either of the Parties to this Collective Agreement or the Board of Trustees to proceed directly by way of Civil action in the Supreme Court of Nova Scotia with respect to the collection of any outstanding contributions, damages and costs.

In the event that the fund is not being utilized to the satisfaction of either the Union or the CLRA, then either the Union or the CLRA may cancel the program upon sixty (60) days notice. In the event of such cancellation, twenty-five cents ($0.25) will go back to the employer and the balance will revert to the employee.

31.03 In addition to any contributions otherwise called for herein, the parties agree that the Employer shall make a contribution of ten cents ($0.10) per hour paid for each millwright employee covered by this agreement to the UBC Millwrights Labour-Management Industry Promotion Fund ("Millwright Fund").

Please note, the ten cents ($0.10) has been deducted from the employee's wage package, therefore if the fund should cease to exist, the ten cents ($0.10) would revert back to the employee wage package.

Payment shall be made to the Millwright Fund or to such collection agent as is designated by the Millwright Fund on or before the 20th day of the month following the month of the work performed. The Employer hereby agrees to be bound by the Agreement and Declaration of Trust for the Millwright Fund as it exists and as it may be amended restated, and to such rules, regulations or other governing documents adopted pursuant to such Trust.

Amendment #1 – November 1, 2011

FOREMEN PREMIUMS

October 8, 2009.....Three dollars ($3.00)

Millwrights will, as a general rule, not be required to take directions in reference to the work being performed, or to be performed, other than from their Millwright Foreman or Millwright Sub-Foreman.

The above Foreman's premium is a minimum premium.

Supervision will be as follows:

- from three to six employees, one working foreman
- from seven to ten employees, one non-working foreman. One of the first three employees will be a working foreman and when a crew exceeds six employees, there shall be a non-working foreman.
- After 10 employees, the format repeats

MAJOR INDUSTRIAL PROJECTS

Major Industrial Projects shall be defined as the initial construction, or major expansion or renovation of facilities such as those listed below, where the initial construction or the major expansion or renovation has a total construction value (man-hour and material) in excess of fifty million dollars ($50,000,000.00).

- |                                   |                                    |
|-----------------------------------|------------------------------------|
| - Pulp Mills                      | - Oil Refineries                   |
| - Paper Mills                     | - Gas Refineries                   |
| - Automobile Manufacturing Plants | - Rubber Plants (such as Michelin) |
| - Steel Mills                     | - Ore Reduction Plants             |
| - Power Generating Projects       | - Petro-Chemical Plans             |

It is understood and agreed that the total construction value (man hours and materials), (above) refers to the overall value of the project in question. Accordingly, the fact that a project is broken down into phases or tenders which may, individually, have a construction value (man hours and materials) of less than fifty million dollars ($50,000,000) will not serve to take the project out of the Major Industrial Projects definition if the total construction value (man hours and materials) of the project is in excess of fifty million dollars ($50,000,000).
