

ATLANTIC CANADA

REGIONAL COUNCIL OF CARPENTERS
MILLWRIGHTS AND ALLIED WORKERS

JOB OPENING

ORGANIZER POSITION

The Atlantic Canada Regional Council of Carpenters, Millwrights and Allied Workers (ACRC) has openings for Organizer positions in Newfoundland and Labrador. The successful candidate must be suitable to work in our fast paced environment and be willing to travel to various locations in Atlantic Canada to work with our team to gain market share. In addition, the candidate must have completed the United Brotherhood of Carpenters (UBC) International Organizing (3-day) Training Course or be available to take the course as required.

DUTIES

The Organizer represents the best interests of the UBC and actively works to organize unrepresented carpenters, working to support the UBC's priority of attaining 70 percent market share in the carpentry, millwright, and allied trades. The Organizer is expected to support this mission through seeking out new opportunities to organize individuals and contractors who are not represented.

The successful candidate will possess strong organizing, communication, and strategic skills. The Organizer will maintain proper and orderly records and provide a daily written report to the EST. The Organizer will work closely with other staff of the ACRC to ensure a consistent and high standard of service is provided to all members of the Council.

PRE-REQUISITES

- Experience within the carpentry trade
- Willingness to travel interprovincially and internationally
