Joint Apprenticeship Training Committee Scholarship Application

The Joint Apprenticeship Training Committee (JATC), of the Carpenter Millwright College Trust, have established a scholarship to ensure continuing participation in the trades for generations of UBC members and signatory contractors.

Three scholarships in the amount of two thousand dollars ($2,000) will be awarded in the fall of each year to successful applicants enrolled in an apprenticeship program at the Carpenter Millwright College. Only one (1) scholarship is awarded per program.

Due to the nature of the start dates of the College, and the scholarships being issued in the fall, it is possible that a scholarship may be awarded after the applicant has completed their entry level program.

Winners of the scholarships will be communicated via email to the members on behalf of the JATC.

ELIGIBILITY

- Be a child, spouse, or a member of Local 579, Local 1009, or a signatory contractor. The member or contractor must be in good standing with a minimum of five (5) years of continuous service
- Be a high school graduate (or equivalent)
- Have started their program within the calendar year for which the scholarship is awarded
- Be in good standing with their program

APPLICATION PROCESS

Please submit your application, along with your high school transcript by September 30th to:
